

Medical Facility DAS Network

In the application diagram below L-com's DAS ceiling antennas are connected via low loss coaxial cable to fiber distribution units and then to the data center via fiber optic cabling providing staff, patients and guests with broadband wireless access supporting both cellular and Wi-Fi device connectivity.

